NEWS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

THOMSON REUTERS LEVERAGES POWER OF MYPAY SOLUTIONS® AND TIMERACK

System Integration Offers an End-to-End Payroll Services Solution

Dexter, MI and Corona, CA, Sept. 23, 2008—The Tax & Accounting business of Thomson Reuters announced today that its service-bureau payroll option, myPay Solutions, now integrates with TimeRack Biz Pro (TimeRack). TimeRack provides a full-scale time and attendance solution, while myPay Solutions offers complete payroll processing services. Leveraging the power of both systems provides organizations with an all-inclusive payroll system.

“We are always looking for ways to enhance our service offerings to help our customers reach their goals. Merging the powerful technologies of myPay Solutions with TimeRack Biz Pro, we are able to offer an end-to-end payroll system,” stated Jim Paille, CPP, Director of Business Strategy and Development, Payroll at Thomson Reuters. “We identified TimeRack as a market-leading time and attendance application that is user-friendly, tested, and proven. Combining TimeRack Biz Pro and myPay Solutions offers the profession a best-of-breed all-in-one payroll solution.”

“We are excited to be working with Thomson Reuters to leverage TimeRack’s advanced time and attendance functionality with their leading payroll services,” stated TJ Sehmi, CEO, TimeRack. “Customers will benefit greatly by being able to securely, accurately, and efficiently transfer their payroll data from TimeRack to myPay solutions. This translates into significant administrative cost savings for customers.”

myPay Solutions is a payroll processing service designed for accounting firms that want the benefits of being involved in their clients’ payroll without the hassle or liability of actually processing it. For more information on myPay Solutions, please visit CS.ThomsonReuters.com/myPaySolutions.

TimeRack Biz Pro is a leading time clock solution for small to mid-sized businesses. The system is designed to reduce overtime, lower theft, and decrease risk of fines and lawsuits for non-compliance. For more information on TimeRack Biz Pro, please visit TimeRack.com.
