Registration Open for Thomson Reuters Payroll Compliance Webcast

DEXTER, Mich, August 7, 2014 – Thomson Reuters myPay Solutions today announced registration is open for a free, hour-long webcast titled Payroll Compliance Update: New and Essential Knowledge from the Front Lines.

During the webcast, which is scheduled for August 13, 2014 at 1:00 p.m. EDT, myPay Solutions operations director and American Payroll Association Board of Directors member Jim Paille, CPP, will offer an in-depth look at the newest legislation and requirements affecting the payroll profession. He'll also provide clarification and insight on frequently misunderstood payroll requirements. Topics include up-to-the minute payroll news, fringe benefit taxation, and employee vs. independent contractor rules.

"Payroll is a fast-growing area of the tax and accounting profession," said Jim Paille, myPay Solutions operations director with the Tax & Accounting business of Thomson Reuters. "Because payroll requirements and regulations are constantly changing, it is important that firms stay up-to-date on the latest developments."
